Master Humphrey’s Clock

First Edition in the 88 Weekly Parts in Fine Condition

Dickens, Charles. Master Humphrey’s Clock. London: Chapman & Hall, 1840. First edition in the original weekly parts in fine condition. Ultimately, the weekly parts were reprinted in book form, but this set is the earliest and rarest form of Master Humphrey’s Clock; one almost never sees the complete 88 parts in fine condition as this set is. 88 weekly parts with all frontispieces and wood-engravings present; original pictorial printed wrappers—all of which are housed in a custom-made dark green quarter leather solander box. This is a collection of short stories in which Dickens introduces many characters who would go on to become major figures in his later novels. Most famous among these characters is Mr. Pickwick and his cronies—Nathaniel Winkle, Augustus Snodgrass, and Tracy Tupman—all explorers of English oddities and eccentricities. The Complete Set in fine condition. $7,500.
19th CENTURY ENGLISH LITERATURE

Lord Byron’s Don Juan
First Octavo Edition in Original Binding

Byron, Lord Gordon. Don Juan. London: Thomas Davison, 1820-1824. First editions of all six volumes in the octavo format (the first two volumes were published in quarto style in 1819 at which point the publisher switched to the use of octavo format). The most unusual aspect of this set is that it is bound in the original paper covered boards; a set of Don Juan in the original binding has come up at auction only once in 40 years. All half-titles are present (often missing). This is Byron’s epic satire and one of the great poems of the English language. This set belonged to Walter Chrysler and has his leather bookplate in Volume I. One of the Great Books of the Western World. $12,500.

First American Edition

Very good in original brown cloth with gilt floral pattern to boards, gilt titles to spines. Some discoloration and wear to boards. This is one of Hardy’s most important novels, and was controversial in its day because it challenged Victorian morals. $3,500.

Small square octavo, sewn binding. 112pp, unopened and uncut. This book of poems was compiled and printed by James Dykes Campbell in a limited edition of approximately 150 copies.
