Greetings,

We now have available a group of titles by and about Prominent Female Figures and books related to Women’s Studies that may be of interest to you. Detailed descriptions and images can be found on the following pages.

If you are interested in any of these items, or have additional questions, please contact the shop at your earliest convenience. We accept most major credit cards, including MasterCard, Visa, American Express, and Discover, as well as checks. Any item is returnable for any reason. If you would like to visit us at the shop, please call ahead. Thank you.

Cordially,

Donald and Teresa Johanson
Johanson Rare Books
Women’s Studies

Memoir of Mrs. Harriet L. Winslow—1840

Accounts of Her Experience as a Member of the American Mission in Ceylon (Sri Lanka)

Winslow, Rev. Miron. Memoir of Mrs. Harriet L. Winslow, Thirteen Years a Member of the American Mission in Ceylon. New York: American Tract Society, 1840. In June 1819, Harriet Lathrop Winslow embarked to Ceylon (Sri Lanka) with her husband, Miron Winslow, under the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions (ABFCM). They were stationed at Uduvil, where Harriet gave particular attention to the education of girls. When a central boarding school for girls was established in January 1824, the Winslows took charge of what became the well-known Uduvil School. Very good in modern green cloth, spine gilt. Some toning and foxing of pages, but text is bright. 18mo. 480pp. $100.

Haps and Mishaps of a Tour in Europe
By Author and Correspondent Grace Greenwood [Sara Jane Lippincott]—1854

Accounts of her 1853 European Travels While on Assignment for The New York Times

Greenwood, Grace. Haps and Mishaps of A Tour in Europe. Boston: Ticknor, Reed, and Fields, 1854. Sara Jane Lippincott (pseudonym Grace Greenwood, 1823-1904) was an American author, poet, correspondent, lecturer, and newspaper founder. One of the first women to gain access into the Congressional press galleries, she used her questions to advocate for social reform and women's rights. Haps and Mishaps of a Tour of Europe are accounts of her 1853 travels in Europe, on an assignment for The New York Times, having the distinction of being the first woman reporter on the Times payroll. Very good in brown cloth, spine gilt. Lacks front fly, scattered foxing inside. Octavo. 437pp. $75.
Brassey, Mrs. A Voyage in the ‘Sunbeam.’ Our Home on the Ocean for Eleven Months. Toronto: Rose-Belford Publishing Co., 1879. Sixth edition. In their yacht ‘Sunbeam’ Lady Brassey and her husband, Admiralty Secretary and diplomat Thomas Brassey, sailed around the world, departing from Chatham, England in 1876. Lady Brassey’s account, first published in England in 1879 and derived from her travel diaries, was a best seller and went through many editions. Very nicely illustrated, with 6 maps, including the large folding frontis showing the entire journey, a folding map of the Straits of Magellan, and a map of the Sandwich Islands and Paumoto or Low Archipelago. Very good in decorative brown, black and gilt Victorian binding. With 118 illustrations engraved on wood by G. Pearson after drawings by the Hon. A. Y. Bingham. Octavo. 489 pp., appendix. $40.

Cheves, Elizabeth Washington Foote. Sketches in Prose and Verse. Baltimore: The Publication Rooms, 1849. Elizabeth Washington Foote Cheves is an American author born in Eastern Virginia. She was not formally educated, but taught herself Latin and French languages, drawing, and painting by reading books. First Edition. Very good- in brown cloth, spine gilt. Some chips on boards, including ¾ inch chip on top of spine. Some water damage to margins of back pages and rear board. Scant foxing, but otherwise text is clean and bright. 12mo. 264pp. $90.
Elizabeth Putnam Gordon’s Women Torch-Bearers:
The Story of the Woman’s Christian Temperance Union
First Edition, Presentation Copy Inscribed by the Author

How to Behave: A Pocket Manual of Republican Etiquette, and Guide to Correct Personal Habits—1856

Wells, Samuel R. How to Behave: A Pocket Manual of Republican Etiquette, and Guide to Correct Personal Habits. New York: Fowler and Wells, 1856. First Edition. A classic etiquette rules/etiquette guide: “An exposition on the principles of good manners, with useful hints on personal habits, parliamentary etiquette, and the etiquette of occasions and places, including: moral and social training, the cultivation of language and expression of opinions, good behavior at home, observances of everyday life; how to behave on the street, such as stopping business men or walking with ladies, how to behave when traveling and the rights of fellow travelers, punctuality, and understanding physiological laws; as well as courtesy in debate, securing a home, Washington’s Code of Manners, Maxims from Chesterfield, etc. With illustrative anecdotes, a chapter on love and courtship, and rules of order for debating societies.” Very Good in embossed black cloth with brightly gilt front board and spine; lightly rubbed at corners and spine ends. Light foxing throughout. 149pp., plus 4pp. ads. & small leaf on “Pleasures which a Christian should Forego.” No. III in the series, Hand-Books for Home Improvement. $75.
Ann Lauterbach’s Before Recollection—1987
Inscribed, With Manuscript & Typed Letters Laid-in

Amelia Earhart’s Last Flight—1937
Narrative of her Final Journey Around the World to New Guinea
As Told by Earhart Before her Disappearance
With 27 Photographic Illustrations

Earhart, Amelia. Last Flight. New York: Harcourt, Brace and Company, 1937. Arranged by George Palmer Putnam. First edition. Amelia Earhart (1897-1937) was an American aviation pioneer and author. Earhart was the first female aviator to fly solo across the Atlantic Ocean. During an attempt to make a circumnavigational flight of the globe in 1937, Earhart and navigator Fred Noonan disappeared over the central Pacific Ocean near Howland Island. Fascination with her life, career, and disappearance continues to this day. Last Flight is almost entirely written by Amelia Earhart herself, originally intended to be titled World Flight. It is a narrative of her journey around the world to New Guinea, as it came by cable and telephone. With 27 photographic illustrations. Very good in red cloth, spine and front board gilt though faded. In a very good dust jacket with a ¼ by ¾ inch chip mid-spine, and some small chips on edges of dust jacket. Interior clean and bright. Octavo. 226pp. $100.
Ten Volume Set of Mrs. Jameson’s Works
Friend of Lady Byron, Wife of Lord Byron

Jameson, Mrs. [Anna Brownell]. Works, including Characteristics of Women, The Diary of an Ennuyée, Memoirs of the Loves of the Poets, and others. Boston and New York: Houghton, Mifflin and Company, 1895. Special compilation of Mrs. Jameson’s works in a set of 10 volumes. Anna Brownell Jameson (1794-1860) was friends with Lady Byron, wife of the Romantic Poet Lord Byron. Their friendship lasted for seven years; apparently brought to an end due to Lady Byron's unreasonable temper. Very good in olive green cloth, spines gilt. 16mos. $150.

Hannah More’s Strictures on the Modern System of Female Education—1799
English Educator, Poet, and Playwright

The Science of Being by Eugene Fersen
Inscribed to American Birth Control Activist Margaret Sanger
A Rare and Special Book

Fersen, Eugene. The Science of Being. New York: J. F. Tapley Co., 1923. First edition. Inscribed and signed by the author to Margaret Sanger. Margaret Higgins Sanger was an American birth control activist, sex educator, writer, and nurse. Sanger popularized the term “birth control”, opened the first birth control clinic in the United States, and established organizations that evolved into the Planned Parenthood Federation of America. The author, Baron Eugene Fersen, was born in 1873 in St. Petersburg to Marie the Grand Duchess of Russia. His grandfather was King Alexander II of Russia. His uncle was Leo Tolstoy and his half-sister was Queen Maria of Romania, who was the grand-daughter of Queen Victoria of England. A rare and special book. Near Fine in soft, brown textured leather. Front cover stamped with the emblem of the Science of Being in gilt. All edges gilt with curved corners. Delicate pages with rare light and thin paper, the first time in the history of paper manufacturing in the United States that such a paper was made. Beautiful black and gold printing throughout, decorative illustrations in gold begin each chapter. Interior is clean and text bright. 16mo. $500.
Friendship’s Offering, 1854
With Contributions from Female Poets and Authors
Illustrated with 8 Engravings by John Sartain

Friendship’s Offering: A Christmas, New York, and Birthday Present for MDCCCLIV.

Elizabeth Gaskell’s Cranford
Illustrated by Hugh Thomson, Signed Riviere Binding

Gaskell, Mrs. [Elizabeth]. Cranford. London: Macmillan and Co., Limited, 1920. With a preface by Anne Thackeray Ritchie. Illustrations by Hugh Thomson. Signed Riviere binding. Revised edition. Cranford is one of the better-known novels of the 19th-century English writer Elizabeth Gaskell. It was first published, irregularly, in eight instalments, between December 1851 and May 1853, in the magazine Household Words, which was edited by Charles Dickens. Very good in ¾ green leather with green cloth-covered boards. Spine gilt with 5 raised bands, darkened to brown. Top edge gilt. Some toning of page edges, but text and illustrations are clean and bright. Previous owner’s bookplate on front pastedown. 297pp. 12mo. $50.
Lydia Marie Child’s The Biographies of Lady Russell and Madame Guyon
American Abolitionist and Women’s Rights Activist

Child, Mrs. [Lydia Marie]. The Biographies of Lady Russell and Madame Guyon. Boston: Carter, Hendee & Co., 1832. With a portrait of Lady Rachel Russell on the frontispiece. Volume 2 of Ladie’s Family Library. Lydia Maria Francis Child (1802-1880), was an American abolitionist, women’s rights activist, Native American rights activist, novelist, journalist, and opponent of American expansionism. Her journals, both fiction and domestic manuals, reached wide audiences from the 1820s through the 1850s. At times, she shocked her audience as she tried to take on issues of both male dominance and white supremacy in some of her stories. Very good- in brown cloth, with paper label on spine. Foxing inside. 264pp. 12mo. $125.

A Physician’s Counsels to Women, in Health and Disease—1872
First Edition
Women’s Health in the Late Nineteenth Century

Rare Early American Magazine—1814-1815
With Selected Pieces by Benjamin Franklin

Carr, Mrs. Mary, ed. The Intellectual Regale; or Ladies’ Tea Tray. Volume 1, Numbers 1(partial)-17, 21. 1814-1815. Edited by Mrs. Mary Carr Clarke of Baltimore. Rare example of a magazine founded and edited by a woman in the early nineteenth century. Including selected pieces by Ben Franklin on Beauty, marriage, and happiness. Additional selections comprise topics on female education, female writers, and courtship. With numerous poems throughout. In the original marbled wraps, pages toned with scant foxing. First 12 pages are missing. Octavo. $750.